Kan. high court upholds Hugoton homicide verdict

CMT Announces Randy Hines, Lee Bryn, Susan Corbin, Hill, Briggs & The Builders to present out state-stadium lineup

WICHITA, Kan. (AP) — The Kansas Supreme Court has upheld the homicide verdict against a man accused of shooting a woman in Hugoton in 2007.

The court's decision in State v. Hines is the latest in a series of rulings that have upheld the state's "stand-your-ground" law, which allows a person to use deadly force if they believe it is necessary to protect themselves or others.

Hines was charged with first-degree murder after shooting a woman in Hugoton in 2007. He was found guilty of second-degree murder and sentenced to life in prison.

The court's decision in Hines is a significant victory for the state's "stand-your-ground" law, which has been the subject of several legal challenges in recent years.

Gun fight: Smith & Wesson, Ruger quit California over stamping requirement

WICHITA, Kan. (AP) — Two major gun manufacturers, Smith & Wesson and Ruger, have announced they will quit California over a new stamping requirement.

The requirement, which took effect in January, mandates that all firearms sold in California must have a specific stamp on the receiver.

Smith & Wesson and Ruger argue that the requirement is overly burdensome and will increase the cost of their firearms. They have filed lawsuits to challenge the requirement.
