Kan. high court upholds Hugoton homicide verdict

CMT Announces Randy Hines, Lee Bryn, Susan Corbin, Hill, Briggs & The Builders to present out state-stadium lineup

WICHITA, Kan. — The Kansas Supreme Court has upheld the homicide verdict against a man accused of murdering a woman in Hugoton, Kan., in 1982.

The court's decision in State v. Hines is the latest in a series of rulings that have upheld the state's use of the death penalty.

The court's decision is a significant victory for the state's prosecutors, who have long argued that the death penalty is a necessary and just punishment for the most heinous crimes.

The court's decision is also a significant victory for the victims' families, who have long sought justice for their loved ones.

The court's decision is a testament to the state's commitment to the rule of law and the protection of the public.

Gun fight: Smith & Wesson, Ruger quit California over stamping requirement

WICHITA, Kan. — Smith & Wesson and Ruger have announced they are leaving the California market due to a new stamping requirement.

The requirement, which went into effect in January, requires manufacturers to stamp their firearms with the name of the manufacturer.

Smith & Wesson and Ruger have decided that the cost of complying with the requirement is too high.

The companies have announced that they will continue to sell their firearms in other states.
