

Time is what keeps everything from happening at once.
COMING WEEKEND: Major Sports Changes with NFL, MLB, NBA, NHL
 4000 W. 13th St., Suite 100 • 405-970-4444 • www.fox4.com

Honoring was huge for Fabiana Moreo
 Page 7A

Women in Agriculture Conference
 Page 3A

Fabulous Fabiana

The new face of food stamps: Working-age Americans

Brain-dead Texas woman taken off life support

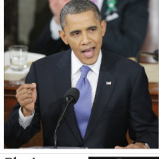

Plains United Methodist Church to host ground hog supper

Food stamps are now an $80 billion a year program — here's what it cost five years ago

LEADER & TIMES
 MONDAY, JANUARY 27, 2014
 Your daily news & more for 127 years

Obama set to announce 'practical' agenda focusing on immigration, income equality

President Barack Obama is expected to announce a new "practical" agenda focusing on immigration, income equality and other issues, according to a senior administration official. The official said the president will likely announce the agenda in the next few weeks. The agenda is expected to include measures to attract more immigrants to the United States, to increase the number of immigrants who are authorized to work in the United States, and to increase the number of immigrants who are naturalized citizens. The agenda is also expected to include measures to increase the number of immigrants who are authorized to study in the United States, and to increase the number of immigrants who are authorized to work in the United States. The agenda is also expected to include measures to increase the number of immigrants who are authorized to work in the United States, and to increase the number of immigrants who are authorized to work in the United States.

President Barack Obama is expected to announce a new "practical" agenda focusing on immigration, income equality and other issues, according to a senior administration official. The official said the president will likely announce the agenda in the next few weeks. The agenda is expected to include measures to attract more immigrants to the United States, to increase the number of immigrants who are authorized to work in the United States, and to increase the number of immigrants who are naturalized citizens. The agenda is also expected to include measures to increase the number of immigrants who are authorized to study in the United States, and to increase the number of immigrants who are authorized to work in the United States. The agenda is also expected to include measures to increase the number of immigrants who are authorized to work in the United States, and to increase the number of immigrants who are authorized to work in the United States.

$22,000 worth of eggs stolen in Puerto Rico
 A large quantity of eggs worth $22,000 was stolen from a farm in Puerto Rico, police said. The eggs were stolen from a farm in the town of San Juan. The farm owner reported the theft to the police. The police are currently investigating the case. The eggs were stolen from a farm in the town of San Juan. The farm owner reported the theft to the police. The police are currently investigating the case. The eggs were stolen from a farm in the town of San Juan. The farm owner reported the theft to the police. The police are currently investigating the case.

Odd call: Blowing nose brings big buck running
 A man in a small town in Wisconsin was called to a house where a deer was running. The man, who is a hunter, was called to the house because the deer was making a noise that sounded like it was blowing its nose. The man went to the house and found the deer. The deer was running and making a noise that sounded like it was blowing its nose. The man went to the house and found the deer. The deer was running and making a noise that sounded like it was blowing its nose. The man went to the house and found the deer. The deer was running and making a noise that sounded like it was blowing its nose.

