Obama set to announce 'practical' agenda focusing on immigration, income equality

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Barack Obama is expected to announce a new set of policies aimed at addressing immigration and income inequality, according to a senior administration official. The official said the president will likely announce the policies in the next few weeks. The policies are expected to focus on providing a path to citizenship for undocumented immigrants and on creating jobs for young people. The official also said that the president will likely announce a new set of policies aimed at addressing income inequality, including raising the minimum wage and providing tax breaks for small businesses.
