Woody Allen's allies cast doubt on sexual abuse claims

Woody Allen's allies cast doubt on sexual abuse claims

By AP Wire

NEW YORK (AP) — Woody Allen's allies on Monday cast doubt on the sexual abuse claims of a woman who says she was sexually abused by the filmmaker in the 1970s.

The woman, who is now 40, says she was sexually abused by Allen when she was 13 years old. She says she was sexually abused by Allen for several years, from 1972 to 1977.

Allen's allies, including his lawyer, said the woman's claims are unfounded. They said she is a liar and that she is trying to ruin Allen's reputation.

Allen's lawyer, Michael Brown, said the woman's claims are "completely untrue." He said she is a "liar" and that she is "trying to ruin Woody's reputation."

Allen's lawyer also said that the woman's claims are "unfounded" and that she is "trying to ruin Woody's reputation."
