

What happens if you get scared half to death twice?
Slow Smoking BIRD - Stone of the BIG WOODS!
A Village Plaza & Liberty, KS 67202-236-4102 Monday - Saturday
KANSAS CITY'S MOST VERSATILE RESTAURANT & CATERERS IN TOWN!

District looks at land for bond issue

"We have to be responsible and negotiate for the very best prices possible, because it isn't the district's money we're talking about. It's the taxpayers' money."

Page 3

Superintendent of Schools Paul Lakin

Friendship meals

Where do they go to eat?

Page 3

Gay marriage response

Page 3

Kansas senator outraises GOP primary challenger

Page 3

Spring enrollment is up at college

Page 3

THURSDAY FEBRUARY 6, 2014

LEADER & TIMES

Your daily news & more for 127 years

Congressional analysts say health care law means fewer on job

Page 1

In the March 22, 2010, photo, President Barack Obama confers with a group of top health care officials in the Oval Office. From left: Health and Human Services Secretary Kathleen Sebelius, Obama, Commerce Secretary Peter Shultz, Labor Secretary Hilda Solis, Education Secretary Arne Duncan, and Treasury Secretary Timothy Geithner.

Two new studies released last week suggest that the health care law will mean fewer jobs, according to congressional analysts. The studies, one from the Congressional Budget Office and another from the Heritage Foundation, both predict that the law will result in a net loss of jobs over the next decade. The CBO study estimates that the law will result in a net loss of 2.4 million jobs, while the Heritage study estimates a net loss of 3.5 million jobs. Both studies cite a variety of factors, including the impact of the law on state and local governments, the private sector, and the federal government. The CBO study also notes that the law will result in a net loss of 1.1 million jobs in the private sector, while the Heritage study estimates a net loss of 1.5 million jobs in the private sector. Both studies also note that the law will result in a net loss of 1.3 million jobs in the federal government. The CBO study also notes that the law will result in a net loss of 1.1 million jobs in the state and local government sector, while the Heritage study estimates a net loss of 1.5 million jobs in the state and local government sector. Both studies also note that the law will result in a net loss of 1.3 million jobs in the federal government. The CBO study also notes that the law will result in a net loss of 1.1 million jobs in the state and local government sector, while the Heritage study estimates a net loss of 1.5 million jobs in the state and local government sector. Both studies also note that the law will result in a net loss of 1.3 million jobs in the federal government.

Memories of the Beatles' US TV debut

Page 1

The Beatles perform on the Ed Sullivan Show in 1964. From left to right: Paul McCartney, John Lennon, George Harrison, and Ringo Starr.

The Beatles' US TV debut on the Ed Sullivan Show in 1964 was a landmark event in the history of popular music. The band's performance, which included their hit single "I Want to Hold Your Hand," was watched by an estimated 90 million Americans. The performance was a major factor in the band's rise to international fame and the popularity of rock and roll music in the United States. The Beatles' US TV debut was a pivotal moment in the history of popular music, and it remains one of the most iconic performances in the history of the genre.