IRS warns of heavy call volume, offers tips for faster answers
 WASHINGTON — The IRS issued a warning Monday that it expects to receive a surge of calls from taxpayers who are confused by the new tax rules for 2014. The IRS says it will be providing additional support to help taxpayers understand the changes. The IRS also offers tips for getting faster answers, such as using the IRS website and calling the toll-free number 1-800-829-1040.
