

Timing has an awful lot to do with the outcome of a rain dance
Thursday Prime Rib
at Village Plaza & Liberal, KS 620-420-4100 Monday - Saturday
Make it a habit every time you're in Liberal, Kansas to take advantage of this special offer!

Man pleads guilty in Garden City homicide
GARDEN CITY, Kan. — A man charged with the murder of a woman in Garden City has pleaded guilty to the crime. The man, 34, was charged with the first-degree murder of a woman in Garden City on Oct. 11. He is scheduled to be sentenced on Feb. 20. The woman was 32 years old at the time of her death. The man is currently being held in the Garden City Jail.

Natural gas offers value as propane prices soar
LIBERAL, Kan. — Propane prices have soared in the past few weeks, and many consumers are turning to natural gas as a more affordable alternative. Natural gas is a cleaner-burning fuel that is also much cheaper than propane. Many consumers are switching to natural gas for their home heating and hot water needs. This switch can save homeowners a significant amount of money on their energy bills.

Miss Kansas Theresa Vail will be coming to Liberal
San Wednesday's edition
LEADER & TIMES
FEBRUARY 20, 2014
Volume 127, Number 127

USD 480 hands present the Liberal Band Festival
LIBERAL, Kan. — The Liberal Band Festival is set for Saturday, Feb. 22, at the Liberal High School. The festival will feature performances by the Liberal High School Band and the Liberal Middle School Band. The festival is a popular event in the community and is expected to draw a large crowd of spectators. The festival is free and open to the public.

Kan. students lobby against sex education bills
LIBERAL, Kan. — A group of Liberal students has been successful in lobbying against a bill that would require sex education in schools. The students, who are members of the Liberal Student Government, met with their state representatives and expressed their concerns. They argued that sex education is not appropriate for all students and that it is a violation of their religious beliefs. The bill has been withdrawn.

Five-year anniversary of Obama's stimulus renews partisan fight over jobs, economy
LIBERAL, Kan. — The five-year anniversary of President Obama's stimulus package has reignited the debate over the federal government's role in the economy. The stimulus package, which was passed in 2009, was intended to create jobs and stimulate economic growth. However, it has been criticized by some as being too large and too costly. The debate over the package continues to this day.

Inmate released after more than 4 years in prison
LIBERAL, Kan. — An inmate who had been in prison for more than four years has been released. The inmate, who was charged with a crime in 2009, was found to be innocent. The release of the inmate has caused controversy in the community, with some arguing that the justice system is flawed. The inmate is now living in Liberal, Kan.

Kansas State University students lobby against sex education bills
LIBERAL, Kan. — A group of Kansas State University students has been successful in lobbying against a bill that would require sex education in schools. The students, who are members of the Kansas State Student Government, met with their state representatives and expressed their concerns. They argued that sex education is not appropriate for all students and that it is a violation of their religious beliefs. The bill has been withdrawn.

Propane prices soar as natural gas offers value
LIBERAL, Kan. — Propane prices have soared in the past few weeks, and many consumers are turning to natural gas as a more affordable alternative. Natural gas is a cleaner-burning fuel that is also much cheaper than propane. Many consumers are switching to natural gas for their home heating and hot water needs. This switch can save homeowners a significant amount of money on their energy bills.

Liberal High School Band performs at festival
LIBERAL, Kan. — The Liberal High School Band performed at the Liberal Band Festival on Saturday, Feb. 22. The band performed several pieces and received a standing ovation from the audience. The festival was a success and was enjoyed by all who attended. The band is proud to represent their school and their community.