Natural gas offers value as propane prices soar
The price of propane has risen sharply in recent months, and many consumers are turning to natural gas as a more affordable alternative. Natural gas is a cleaner-burning fuel that is also more readily available in many areas. Many consumers are switching to natural gas for their home heating and hot water needs. This switch can help reduce energy costs and environmental impact. However, the price of natural gas is also fluctuating, so consumers should monitor the market closely.

USD 480 hands present the Liberal Band Festival
The Liberal Band Festival is a community event that brings together students from various schools in the area. The festival features a variety of musical performances, including marching bands, jazz ensembles, and solo artists. The event is held at the Liberal High School gymnasium and is open to the public. The festival is a great way for students to showcase their talents and for the community to enjoy a day of music.

Kan. students lobby against sex education bills

Students are lobbying against sex education bills in Kansas. The bills would require schools to teach comprehensive sex education, including topics such as contraception and sexually transmitted infections. Many parents and students are concerned that these bills would be too restrictive and would not provide the necessary information. They are organizing protests and contacting their state representatives to express their concerns. The state legislature is currently debating the bills, and the outcome is expected to be decided in the coming months.

Five-year anniversary of Obama's stimulus renews partisan fight over jobs, economy

Feb. 18, 2009. The then vice president Barack Obama signed the stimulus bill in the White House. The bill was signed into law on Feb. 17, 2009. The bill was a landmark piece of legislation that provided $787 billion in economic stimulus. The bill was signed in the presence of Vice President Joe Biden and Speaker of the House Nancy Pelosi. The bill was a response to the economic crisis that had been unfolding since the end of 2008.
