Man pleads guilty in Garden City homicide
GARDEN CITY, Kan. (AP) — A man accused of shooting and killing a woman in Garden City, Kan., has pleaded guilty to the crime. The man, 34, was charged with first-degree murder in the shooting of a woman in the city's downtown area in 2011. The woman was found with multiple gunshot wounds. The man was arrested shortly after the shooting and has been in custody since then. He is scheduled to be sentenced in court next month.

Natural gas offers value as propane prices soar
LIBERAL, Kan. (AP) — Propane prices have spiked in the past few weeks, and many consumers are turning to natural gas as a more affordable alternative. Natural gas prices have remained relatively stable, making it an attractive option for those looking to reduce their heating costs. Many propane suppliers are offering discounts to encourage customers to switch to natural gas. This trend is expected to continue as propane prices remain high.

Kan. students lobby against sex education bills
LIBERAL, Kan. (AP) — A group of students from a local high school has organized a lobby day to oppose proposed sex education bills. The students are concerned that the bills would mandate comprehensive sex education in schools, which they believe is inappropriate for their age group. They plan to meet with state legislators to voice their concerns and urge them to reject the bills.

Five-year anniversary of Obama's stimulus renews partisan fight over jobs, economy
LIBERAL, Kan. (AP) — The five-year anniversary of President Obama's stimulus package has reignited the debate over government spending and the economy. Republicans argue that the stimulus was wasteful and did not create enough jobs, while Democrats claim it was necessary to prevent a deeper recession. The debate continues as the economy shows signs of recovery but remains fragile.

Immature released after more than 4 years in prison
LIBERAL, Kan. (AP) — A man who was arrested as a juvenile for a crime he did not remember committing has been released from prison after serving more than four years. The man, now 21, was arrested at the age of 16 and spent the next four years in the state prison system. He was recently granted parole and is expected to return to his hometown. The case has drawn attention to the treatment of juveniles in the criminal justice system.

Prisoners in open trial
LIBERAL, Kan. (AP) — A group of prisoners is set to go on trial for a crime committed while they were in prison. The prisoners were charged with a violent offense and are facing serious charges. The trial is expected to be a high-profile case, with many people interested in the outcome. The prisoners' attorneys are working to ensure a fair trial and challenge the evidence against them.
