College, LHS team up to offer College Goal Sunday

Volunteers help students find financial aid this weekend at Liberal High School

By Kelli Cramer
College Goal Sunday, a national event where students and parents can find financial aid, was held at Liberal High School on Saturday. The event was a joint effort between the school and the community. Students and parents were able to meet with financial aid counselors and receive information about various scholarship and grant opportunities. The event was a success, with many students receiving financial aid packages. The school is proud to have the community support in providing these opportunities for its students.
