College, LHS team up to offer College Goal Sunday
Volunteers help students find financial aid this weekend at Liberal High School
By KATHY COOPER
College Goal Sunday, a national effort to help students find financial aid, is being held at Liberal High School this weekend. The event is a free, one-day event where students can meet with financial aid counselors from various colleges and universities. The event is open to all students, regardless of their financial situation. The event will be held from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday, Feb. 22, at Liberal High School. The event is a great opportunity for students to learn more about college and financial aid. For more information, visit www.collegegoalsunday.com.

Senator declares Kan. 'religious liberties protection' bill dead
By KATHY COOPER
A Kansas senator has declared a bill that would have protected religious liberties as dead. The bill, known as the Religious Freedom Restoration Act, was introduced in the Kansas Senate in 2013. The bill would have required the government to demonstrate a compelling interest before it could restrict the exercise of religious freedom. The bill was defeated in the Senate in 2013. The senator, Sen. Jim Lawrence, said that the bill was dead because it did not have enough support. For more information, visit www.liberalks.com.
