Voter registration open till March 18
Election shows the Superstars must step up the game.
By Jeff Hays
The 2014 election cycle is in full swing, and voters in Clatsop County are being urged to register by March 18. The deadline for voter registration is just over two weeks away. "It's important to get registered as early as possible to ensure you have time to change your mind if you need to," said County Clerk David Cook. "We have a lot of people who register late, and we don't want anyone to miss out on the chance to vote."

Stolen '57 Chevy returned to owner after 30 years
LAWRENCE, Calif. — This is the story of a '57 Chevy that was stolen in 1984 and returned to its owner after 30 years. The car was found in a junkyard in Lawrence, Calif., and was in poor condition. The owner, a man from Clatsop County, Oregon, was contacted by the police and informed that the car had been found. The car was returned to the owner after 30 years of being lost.
