City approves building board
By Matt Quinn
Oxford Times
The Oxford City Commission today approved the creation of a new building board, which will be responsible for reviewing and approving all building permits in the city. The board will also be responsible for reviewing and approving all zoning applications. The board will be made up of five members, including the city manager and four citizens. The board will meet on a regular basis and will report to the city commission. The board will be responsible for reviewing and approving all building permits in the city.
