City approves building board
The City of Comstock today approved a new building board to oversee the city's building department. The board will be made up of five members, including the city manager, and will meet monthly to review and approve building permits and other matters. The board will also be responsible for recommending changes to the city's building code. The board will meet for the first time on March 10 at 7 p.m. in the city council chamber. For more information, contact the city manager at 630-620-4000.
