California couple in $10M gold find may owe govt about half, report says
The San Francisco Chronicle reports that the find is a notable event under a 1993 federal court ruling that holds a "discovery" is taxable the year it was discovered. The couple, who were out for a walk in a park, found the gold while looking for a dog. The gold was found in a hole that the dog had dug. The couple was told that they may owe the government about half of the value of the gold. The report says that the couple is currently negotiating with the government over the issue.
