Prevention is firefighters' top priority
By Tom Ichniowski
The fire department's top priority is preventing fires, not fighting them, according to a report released by the National Fire Protection Association (NFPA) on Monday. The report, which is based on data from 2012, shows that the most common cause of residential fires is cooking, followed by electrical wiring and candles. The report also notes that the majority of fire deaths occur in residential structures, and that the majority of fire injuries occur in residential structures as well.

STATE CHAMPS!
Forgen was third title in four years
By Tom Ichniowski
The team from Forgen, Ohio, won the state championship in the 1000cc class at the AMA Superbike Championship on Sunday. The team, which is coached by Forgen's owner, Mike Forgen, won the title by a narrow margin over the team from Ohio. The team's victory marks the third time in four years that Forgen has won the state championship.
