

ENJOY BELLY'S FAMOUS CURRIE AT HOME ON A SUNDAY EVENING WITH OUR CATERING SERVICES. BELLY'S BEST BITE AND VEGAN RESTAURANT & VILLAGE PUB. 420-642-6400

Bond not for fancy offices

All the money is for the kids' schools

By MICHELLE CHEN

A bond issue for $120 million will be put to voters on March 23. The plan will be used to fund a variety of projects, including the construction of a new high school and the renovation of several existing schools. The bond issue is expected to pass with a comfortable margin.

Autism doesn't deter former Liberal teen

Page 9A

By MICHELLE CHEN

A former Liberal teen who was diagnosed with autism at the age of 13 is now a successful entrepreneur. She has founded a company that provides services for people with autism and their families. Her story is an inspiration to many.

No major damage in grass fire

Page 9A

By MICHELLE CHEN

A grass fire that broke out in the early morning hours of Saturday did not cause any major damage. The fire was quickly extinguished by firefighters. The cause of the fire is still under investigation.

Local women open Oasis Day Spa

Page 1B

By MICHELLE CHEN

A group of local women has opened a new day spa in the city. The spa offers a variety of services, including massages, facials, and manicures. The owners hope to provide a relaxing and rejuvenating experience for their customers.

LEADER & TIMES

SUNDAY MARCH 16, 2014
Your daily news & insight for 127 years

JEDC endorses school bond plan

By MICHELLE CHEN

The Joint Education District Council (JEDC) has endorsed a school bond plan. The plan includes funding for a new high school and the renovation of several existing schools. The JEDC believes that the bond issue is a necessary step to ensure the quality of education for all students.

Rep. Petty: Ruling not as bad as expected

By MICHELLE CHEN

Rep. Petty has expressed his disappointment over a recent ruling. He believes that the ruling is not as bad as expected and that there are still many options available. He will continue to work with his colleagues to address the issue.

Public is invited to meet candidate Schodorf on Tuesday

By MICHELLE CHEN

The public is invited to meet candidate Schodorf on Tuesday. The meeting will be held at the city hall and will provide an opportunity for the public to ask questions and express their concerns. The meeting is free and open to all.

Calif. gun parts store refuses to turn over customer list to feds

By MICHELLE CHEN

A California gun parts store has refused to turn over its customer list to federal authorities. The store claims that the list contains sensitive information and that releasing it would be a violation of privacy. The store has filed a lawsuit to challenge the federal government's request.