

ENJOY BELLY'S FAMOUS CURRIE AT HOME ON A BREEZY EVENING WITH OUR CATERING SERVICES.
We don't have a menu for you. We have a chef who will create a menu for you. Call us today to book your catered event.
100 Village Place • Liberal, KS 67340-6200

Bond not for fancy offices

All the money is for the kids' schools

By MICHAEL CHASE

A bond issue for 2014 that will raise $10 million for the state's schools is expected to pass in the next few weeks. The plan will fund a variety of projects, including the construction of new schools and the renovation of existing ones. The plan also includes funding for teacher salaries and other school-related expenses.

Autism doesn't deter former Liberal teen

Page 9A

By MICHAEL CHASE

Autism doesn't deter a former Liberal teen from competing in the state's top tennis tournament. The teen, who is currently in college, has won several state titles and is expected to compete in the national tournament. His parents and coaches are proud of his achievements and his ability to overcome challenges.

No major damage in grass fire

Page 9A

By MICHAEL CHASE

A grass fire that broke out in the morning in the Liberal area did not cause any major damage. The fire was quickly extinguished by firefighters, and the cause is still under investigation. The fire was reported to have started in a field near a residential area.

Flu cases down this year

By MICHAEL CHASE

Flu cases in the Liberal area are down significantly this year compared to previous years. Health officials attribute this to a combination of factors, including a milder winter and a higher vaccination rate. The number of hospitalizations due to the flu has also decreased.

Local women open Oasis Day Spa

Page 1B

By MICHAEL CHASE

A group of local women has opened a new day spa in the Liberal area. The spa, called Oasis Day Spa, offers a variety of services including massages, facials, and manicures. The owners hope to provide a relaxing and rejuvenating experience for their customers.

LEADER & TIMES

SUNDAY MARCH 16, 2014
Your daily news & sight for 127 years

JEDC endorses school bond plan

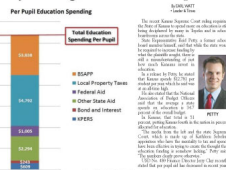

By MICHAEL CHASE

The Joint Education District Council (JEDC) has endorsed a school bond plan that will raise $10 million for the state's schools. The plan includes funding for new schools, school renovations, and other educational projects. The JEDC members believe that the bond issue is a necessary step to ensure the future of our schools.

Rep. Petty: Ruling not as bad as expected

By MICHAEL CHASE

Rep. Petty has expressed his disappointment with a recent ruling, but believes it is not as bad as expected. He has vowed to continue to fight for his constituents and to work with the relevant agencies to address the issues. Petty has a long history of public service and is committed to making a difference in his community.

Public is invited to meet candidate Schodorf on Tuesday

By MICHAEL CHASE

The public is invited to meet candidate Schodorf on Tuesday. The meeting will be held at the Liberal Community Center and will provide an opportunity for voters to learn more about the candidate and his platform. Schodorf is a local resident and has a strong background in public service.

Calif. gun parts store refuses to turn over customer list to feds

By MICHAEL CHASE

A California gun parts store has refused to turn over its customer list to federal authorities. The store's attorney has argued that the list is protected under the state's privacy laws. The case has raised questions about the balance between public safety and individual privacy.

Public is invited to meet candidate Schodorf on Tuesday

By MICHAEL CHASE

The public is invited to meet candidate Schodorf on Tuesday. The meeting will be held at the Liberal Community Center and will provide an opportunity for voters to learn more about the candidate and his platform. Schodorf is a local resident and has a strong background in public service.

Calif. gun parts store refuses to turn over customer list to feds

By MICHAEL CHASE

A California gun parts store has refused to turn over its customer list to federal authorities. The store's attorney has argued that the list is protected under the state's privacy laws. The case has raised questions about the balance between public safety and individual privacy.