

The colder the x-ray tube, the more of your body is required on it!
Thursday Edition 2014
A Village Press Librett, 25 E. 20th Street, 11101
Printed on 100% recycled paper with soy-based inks

Election begins
Check's office mails first advance ballot today

The 2014 election for the state of New York begins today with the mailing of the first advance ballot to voters. The state's 62nd Legislative Session will begin on Monday, March 24, with the opening of the legislative session in Albany.

Relentless winds
Tuesday's winds reached 44 mph rate of the northwest, gusting to 54 mph.

Who patronizes Memorial Library?
Page 4A

LEADER & TIMES
Your daily news & views for 127 years

Mayor Harrison endorses school bond

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Albany Mayor Dan Harrison has endorsed a $100 million bond issue to fund a new high school in the city. Harrison said the bond issue is a "critical step" in the city's effort to improve its education system.

White House backs off surgeon general nominee push amid Democrats' resistance

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House has backed off its push to name a new surgeon general, a move seen as a response to Democratic resistance in the Senate. The administration had been pushing for the nomination of a new surgeon general since the departure of the current one in January.

Kiener Public Library Foundation to host benefit dinner

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — The Kiener Public Library Foundation will host a benefit dinner on Thursday, March 27, at the Albany Marriott Hotel. The dinner is a fundraising event for the foundation, which supports the library's operations and programs.

Children's Art Day coming

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — The Albany Children's Art Day is coming on Saturday, March 22, at the Albany Public Library. The event is a celebration of children's art and creativity, featuring a variety of art projects and activities for children of all ages.