Kansas woman, 91, resists developer
LINDSEY COE • A Kansas woman who has spent the last 15 years of her life in a nursing home is now being offered a $1 million deal to sell her home. The woman, who is 91 years old, has lived in the home since she was 76. She has a long history of mental health issues and has been in and out of psychiatric hospitals. The developer, who is offering her the deal, says she is looking for a long-term investment. The woman, however, says she does not want to leave her home. She says she has lived there for a long time and she likes it. She says she has a lot of memories there. She says she has lived there for a long time and she likes it.
