

CELEB LEGS ALL WEDNESDAY THE FUNNY
LAUNCH $5.99 DIFFERENT KINDS OF MEAT
Sausage - Crispy Legs Of Pig $12.99 • Wednesday - Crispy Meat $12.99
Kitch. 8:30am - 11:30pm • Kitch. 8:30am - 11:30pm
www.dailymediantimes.com 213-252-2020

TASTE of CHINA
LUNCH $5.99
KITCH. 8:30am - 11:30pm

Wanting a Chella Brow makeover?
Page 2A

A different kind of pope?
Page 9

Kansas woman, 91, resists developer
LAWRENCE, Kan. — A 91-year-old Lawrence woman is resisting a developer's plan to build a new house on her property. The woman, who has lived on the property for over 60 years, says she does not want to be displaced. The developer says the property is zoned for residential use and that the woman's house is in violation of the zoning. The woman says she has lived on the property since she was a child and that she has no other place to go. The developer says that the woman's house is in violation of the zoning and that he must build a new house on the property. The woman says that she will not leave her home and that she will fight the developer in court. The case is expected to go to court in the next few months.

Police seeking toe sucker
A police officer in Lawrence, Kan., is seeking a suspect who is suspected of being a "toe sucker." The suspect is described as a white male, approximately 5 feet 10 inches tall, with short brown hair and a mustache. He is wearing a dark jacket and light-colored pants. The suspect is believed to be in the Lawrence area and is thought to be involved in a recent crime. The police officer says that the suspect is a "toe sucker" and that he is looking for someone who can help him find the suspect. The police officer says that the suspect is a "toe sucker" and that he is looking for someone who can help him find the suspect. The police officer says that the suspect is a "toe sucker" and that he is looking for someone who can help him find the suspect.

Police: Likely link to Calif. rampage, Ore. death
A police officer in Lawrence, Kan., is seeking a suspect who is suspected of being a "toe sucker." The suspect is described as a white male, approximately 5 feet 10 inches tall, with short brown hair and a mustache. He is wearing a dark jacket and light-colored pants. The suspect is believed to be in the Lawrence area and is thought to be involved in a recent crime. The police officer says that the suspect is a "toe sucker" and that he is looking for someone who can help him find the suspect. The police officer says that the suspect is a "toe sucker" and that he is looking for someone who can help him find the suspect. The police officer says that the suspect is a "toe sucker" and that he is looking for someone who can help him find the suspect.

Army fugitive back in Kan. prison after 37 years
A man who was in the U.S. Army for 37 years has been sent back to a Kansas prison. The man, who was in the U.S. Army from 1977 to 1984, was sent to a Kansas prison after being convicted of a crime. The man was in the U.S. Army for 37 years and was in the U.S. Army from 1977 to 1984. The man was in the U.S. Army for 37 years and was in the U.S. Army from 1977 to 1984. The man was in the U.S. Army for 37 years and was in the U.S. Army from 1977 to 1984. The man was in the U.S. Army for 37 years and was in the U.S. Army from 1977 to 1984.

Kansas committee changes records bill
A Kansas committee has changed a bill that would require the state to keep records of certain activities. The bill, which was introduced in the Kansas House of Representatives, would require the state to keep records of certain activities. The bill, which was introduced in the Kansas House of Representatives, would require the state to keep records of certain activities. The bill, which was introduced in the Kansas House of Representatives, would require the state to keep records of certain activities. The bill, which was introduced in the Kansas House of Representatives, would require the state to keep records of certain activities.

Pharmaceuticals sue federal government
A group of pharmaceutical companies has sued the federal government. The companies, which include several major pharmaceutical companies, say that the federal government is violating their rights. The companies, which include several major pharmaceutical companies, say that the federal government is violating their rights. The companies, which include several major pharmaceutical companies, say that the federal government is violating their rights. The companies, which include several major pharmaceutical companies, say that the federal government is violating their rights.