

The journey of a thousand miles begins with a broken fan belt and a flat tire. Come March Major Sports Begins with NFL's St. Louis Rams, MLB's New York Yankees, NBA's Miami Heat and NHL's Boston Bruins.

USD
Budget, recruiting, insurance on tonight's school board agenda
The school board will meet at 7:30 p.m. in the boardroom of the school district. The agenda includes a presentation on the school district's budget for the next fiscal year, which is set to begin on July 1, 2014. The board will also discuss the recruitment of new teachers and the insurance coverage for school employees.

German customs seizes cocaine addressed to Vatican
A large quantity of cocaine worth about $15 million was seized by German customs in the port of Hamburg. The drugs were found in a container addressed to the Vatican. The seizure was part of an ongoing investigation into drug trafficking routes to the Holy See.

Liberal receives snow in last week of March - again
A heavy snowfall hit the Midwest region of the United States last week, marking the final snow event of the month. The snow was particularly heavy in the Great Lakes area, where it caused significant travel disruptions and power outages.

Work continues on Kansas school funding measure
Legislators in Kansas are continuing to work on a proposed funding measure for public schools. The measure aims to address the state's chronic underfunding of education and ensure that all students have access to quality learning opportunities.

Gun control measures met with defiance from law enforcement officers
Proposed gun control legislation in Kansas has met with strong resistance from law enforcement groups. These groups argue that the measures would infringe on their constitutional rights and reduce public safety by limiting their ability to protect citizens.

Incentives to help housing expansion in Dodge City
Local officials in Dodge City are offering incentives to encourage new housing developments. These incentives include property tax breaks and grants for affordable housing projects, aiming to revitalize the city's economy and address the need for more homes.

Kansas residents brace for flood insurance changes
Residents in flood-prone areas of Kansas are being urged to review their flood insurance policies. Due to changes in federal disaster relief programs, private flood insurance is becoming more critical for many households.

Incident in Dodge City
A minor incident occurred in Dodge City on Monday, involving a traffic stop and a citation. The incident was quickly resolved, and no serious injuries or property damage were reported.

Local news and events
A roundup of local news items, including community events, school activities, and local business news. The items highlight the vibrant and active nature of the Dodge City community.

Local news and events
Continuation of local news items, focusing on sports events, local government meetings, and community initiatives. The news provides a comprehensive look at the current state of Dodge City.