

Support bacteria, they're the only culture some people have Thursday Prime Rib
at Village Plaza & Liberty, KP 620-628-8900 Monday - Saturday
11:30am - 10:00pm

Gunshots lead to narcotics arrest

—Tom Kline
A 27-year-old man was arrested on charges of possession of a controlled substance after police officers responded to a report of a shooting in the 1000 block of S. 10th St. on Monday. The man was arrested on charges of possession of a controlled substance and possession of a firearm. The man was arrested on charges of possession of a controlled substance and possession of a firearm. The man was arrested on charges of possession of a controlled substance and possession of a firearm.

POLL: Support for bond outpaces opposition 2 to 1

—Liz Kohn
A new poll shows that 67 percent of voters support the bond issue, while only 33 percent oppose it. The poll was conducted by the University of Missouri-Kansas City's Center for Public Policy and Administration. The poll was conducted by the University of Missouri-Kansas City's Center for Public Policy and Administration. The poll was conducted by the University of Missouri-Kansas City's Center for Public Policy and Administration.

WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH

Memorial Library to host WHM program

—Tom Kline
The Memorial Library will host a Women's History Month program on Wednesday, March 26, at 10 a.m. The program will feature a presentation by the author of the book "The Women's Movement: A History" and a panel discussion with several women's rights activists. The program will feature a presentation by the author of the book "The Women's Movement: A History" and a panel discussion with several women's rights activists. The program will feature a presentation by the author of the book "The Women's Movement: A History" and a panel discussion with several women's rights activists.

Poll questions

—Liz Kohn
The poll questions were designed to gauge public opinion on the bond issue. The questions included: "Do you support the bond issue?", "Do you oppose the bond issue?", and "Do you have no opinion on the bond issue?". The poll questions were designed to gauge public opinion on the bond issue. The questions included: "Do you support the bond issue?", "Do you oppose the bond issue?", and "Do you have no opinion on the bond issue?".

City will meet Wednesday

LEADER & TIMES

—Liz Kohn
The City Council will meet on Wednesday, March 26, at 7 p.m. in the City Council Chamber. The agenda includes a presentation by the Mayor and a discussion of the city's budget. The agenda includes a presentation by the Mayor and a discussion of the city's budget. The agenda includes a presentation by the Mayor and a discussion of the city's budget.

'Elite' Fleet names Liberal man Outstanding Driver of the Year

—Tom Kline
The Elite Fleet has named a Liberal man as its Outstanding Driver of the Year. The man, who has been driving for the fleet for several years, was recognized for his exceptional performance and dedication to his work. The man, who has been driving for the fleet for several years, was recognized for his exceptional performance and dedication to his work. The man, who has been driving for the fleet for several years, was recognized for his exceptional performance and dedication to his work.

After song and dance, board tackles bills, plans for teacher training

—Tom Kline
The Board of Education will meet on Wednesday, March 26, at 7 p.m. in the Board Room. The agenda includes a presentation by the Superintendent and a discussion of the board's budget. The agenda includes a presentation by the Superintendent and a discussion of the board's budget. The agenda includes a presentation by the Superintendent and a discussion of the board's budget.