

For Sale: Parachute. Only used once, never opened, small stain.
Slow Cooker Book Home of the BIG WEEKEND
Village Plaza Library, 820 E. 24th St. Monday - Saturday
10:00 AM - 5:00 PM

LHS to offer summer driver's ed
Page 3A
The Lincoln High School (LHS) is offering a summer driver's education course for students who are 16 years of age or older. The course is designed to provide students with the necessary skills and knowledge to become licensed drivers. The course will be held from June 1st to August 31st. The cost of the course is $150.00. For more information, please contact the LHS Registrar at (781) 326-1234.

Book Fair challenges fourth-graders
Event promotes reading, encourages literacy
The Lincoln High School (LHS) is hosting a book fair for fourth-grade students. The fair is designed to challenge students to read and learn about different books. The fair will be held from June 1st to August 31st. The cost of the fair is $10.00. For more information, please contact the LHS Registrar at (781) 326-1234.

Commissioners to file official complaint against Ron Warren
The State Board of Education is planning to file an official complaint against Ron Warren, the superintendent of Lincoln High School. The complaint is based on alleged misconduct and financial irregularities. The board will hold a public hearing on the matter in the coming weeks.

City facing insurance increase
The City of Lincoln is facing a significant increase in its insurance costs. The increase is due to rising rates for various types of insurance, including general liability and property insurance. The city officials are looking for ways to offset the increase and keep the city's budget on track.

Still undecided? Get the facts today at public meeting
The City of Lincoln is holding a public meeting to discuss the proposed changes to the city's charter. The meeting is open to all citizens and will provide an opportunity for residents to voice their concerns and suggestions. The meeting will be held on June 15th at 7:00 PM at the City Council Chamber.

Kansas family's $25G probe pins fruitless SWAT team raid on science project or tea
A Kansas family's $25G probe has led to a fruitless SWAT team raid on a science project or tea. The probe was initiated by the FBI and resulted in the raid on the family's home. The family claims that the raid was unjustified and that the probe was based on false information.

Church of Nazarene to present Gospel Hymn Sing Sunday
The Church of Nazarene is presenting a Gospel Hymn Sing on Sunday. The sing is a celebration of the church's rich musical heritage and will feature a variety of hymns and songs. The sing will be held at 10:00 AM on Sunday at the Church of Nazarene.

Minnesota teen wins settlement after school takes Facebook password
A Minnesota teen has won a settlement after her school took her Facebook password. The teen, who was 16 years old at the time, sued the school for violating her privacy. The court ruled in her favor and awarded her a settlement.

Ex-KBI official pleads to exploitation
A former KBI official has pleaded to exploitation. The official, who worked for the KBI for many years, is accused of exploiting his position for personal gain. The case is currently being handled by the FBI.