

For Sale: Parachute. Only used once, never opened, small state
Slow Growth! Home of the BIG WOODY!
Village Plaza & Liberty, K.S. 820-426-4600 Monday - Saturday
10000 sq ft with 1000 sq ft of office space in a 10000 sq ft building

LHS to offer summer driver's ed
Page 3A

Book Fair challenges fourth-graders
Event in reading, writing, drawing & thinking
The book fair, which is open to all students, will be held from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. on Thursday, March 27, at the LHS library. The fair will feature a variety of books for sale, as well as a variety of activities for students to participate in. The fair is a great opportunity for students to learn more about books and to support their school's library.

Commissioners to file official complaint against Ron Warren
The commissioners of the Kansas State Board of Education have filed an official complaint against Ron Warren, the state superintendent of education. The complaint alleges that Warren violated the board's rules and regulations regarding the state superintendent's duties. The board will hold a hearing on the complaint in the coming weeks.

City facing insurance increase
The City of Lawrence is facing a significant increase in its insurance costs. The city's insurance carrier has notified the city that it will be increasing its rates for the upcoming year. The city is currently reviewing the increase and exploring options to mitigate the cost. The city's budget committee will meet next week to discuss the issue.

THURSDAY MARCH 27, 2014
LEADER & TIMES
Year daily news & news for 127 years

Still undecided? Get the facts today at public meeting
The Kansas State Board of Education is holding a public meeting to discuss the proposed changes to the state superintendent's duties. The meeting will be held on Thursday, March 27, at the LHS library. The board will be discussing the proposed changes and will be taking public comment. The meeting is open to all interested parties.

Kansas family's $25G probe pins fruitless SWAT team raid on science project or tea
A Kansas family's $25G probe has resulted in a fruitless SWAT team raid on a science project or tea. The family, who were conducting a science project, were raided by a SWAT team on the morning of March 27. The raid was conducted without a warrant and resulted in the seizure of the family's science project materials. The family is currently seeking legal counsel and is planning to file a lawsuit against the police department.

Minnesota teen wins settlement after school takes Facebook password
A Minnesota teen has won a settlement after her school took her Facebook password. The teen, who was a member of the school's Facebook page, was notified by the school that they had taken her password. The teen's parents filed a lawsuit against the school, claiming that the school's actions violated the teen's privacy. The court ruled in favor of the teen, and the school was required to pay a settlement to the teen's parents.

Church of Nazarene to present Gospel Hymn Sing Sunday
The Church of Nazarene is presenting a Gospel Hymn Sing on Sunday, March 30, at 10 a.m. The sing will be held at the church and will feature a variety of gospel hymns. The church is inviting all interested parties to attend the sing. The church is located at 1234 Main Street, Lawrence, KS.

Ex-KBI official pleads to exploitation
A former Kansas Bureau of Investigation (KBI) official has pleaded guilty to exploitation. The official, who worked for the KBI for several years, was charged with exploiting his position for personal gain. The official was charged with using his access to KBI resources to promote his own business interests. The official is currently facing several charges and is awaiting trial.