Kansas man accused in guitar string decapitation

TOPEKA, Kan. (AP) — A Topeka man was accused Monday of decapitating a guitar string with a knife. The man, 34, was charged with first-degree murder after the string was found in a trash can in his home. The man is being held in jail on $1 million bond.

Deadline brings high interest for health insurance

TOPEKA, Kan. (AP) — Health insurance companies are seeing a surge in interest as the deadline for enrolling in plans for the next year approaches. Many people are looking for ways to save money on their premiums, and some are looking for ways to get better coverage. The deadline is April 15 for those who are not yet enrolled in a plan.

Firefighter rescues 6-foot python from blaze

TOPEKA, Kan. (AP) — A firefighter rescued a 6-foot python from a fire in a home in Topeka Monday. The snake was found in a room that was filled with smoke. The firefighter used a hose to spray water on the snake, and then lifted it out of the room. The snake was taken to a local reptile store.

Kan. Senate to debate bill voiding local gun rules

TOPEKA, Kan. (AP) — The Kansas Senate is set to debate a bill that would void local gun rules. The bill, known as SB 100, would allow gun owners to carry their firearms in public places, even in areas where local governments have enacted gun-free zones.
