Kansas man accused in guitar string decapitation

HOUSTON (AP) — A southeast Kansas man died after a guitar string decapitated him. The man, 38, was killed by a guitar string that snapped while he was playing an acoustic guitar. The incident occurred on Monday night in a home in Holton, Kan. The man was playing the guitar when the string snapped and struck his neck. He was taken to a hospital but died before he could be transported to a larger medical center.

Kan. Senate to debate bill voiding local gun rules

TOPEKA, Kan. (AP) — Kansas' top legislative body is expected to vote on a bill that would void local gun control laws. The bill, known as the "Kansas Second Amendment Act," would prohibit cities and counties from enforcing laws that are more restrictive than state law. The bill is expected to be introduced in the Senate in the coming weeks.

Deadline brings high interest for health insurance

HOUSTON (AP) — The deadline for employers to decide whether to offer health insurance to their employees is fast approaching. Many employers are rushing to make decisions about whether to offer health insurance to their employees. The deadline is April 15th. Employers who do not offer health insurance by this deadline may face higher costs for their employees. The deadline is a key factor in determining whether employers will offer health insurance to their employees.
