School, city to approve sales tax agreement today
By Jeff Knapp

The City of Coronado and the Board of Education will meet today to discuss a proposed sales tax agreement with the school district. The agreement would allow the city to collect a 1.5 percent sales tax on all goods and services sold in the city. The tax would be used to fund the school district's operations. The agreement would also allow the city to collect a 1.5 percent sales tax on all goods and services sold in the city. The tax would be used to fund the school district's operations.

Giving blood, Giving life
By Jeff Knapp

It's the blood that keeps us going. The life of a person is dependent on the blood that flows through their veins. Giving blood is a simple act that can make a big difference in someone's life. The American Red Cross is currently accepting donations of whole blood, plasma, and platelets. Donating blood is a safe and easy process that can help save lives.

ADAMS' Fall
The Adams family is celebrating the fall season with a special exhibit at the Coronado Museum. The exhibit features a collection of fall-themed items, including pumpkins, gourds, and autumn leaves. The exhibit is open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily. Admission is free.
