

MEMBERS at the Yellow Brick Road Car Show
MEMBER WITH A MESSY HAIR
MEMBER WITH A MESSY HAIR

4-H Shooting Sports Club hosts BB Gun Shootout
Page 9 DA

NEW EXHIBIT COMING to Coronado Museum
Page 3A

ATM spits out $37,000
Page 1A

2-legged dog charms millions
Page 8A

SUNDAY APRIL 6, 2014
LEADER & TIMES
Your daily news & views for 127 years

BONUS SECTION
Take the first look at a special five-week series of Progress being made on the plains. INSIDE

School, city to approve sales tax agreement today
By Jeff Knapp

The City of Coronado and the Board of Education will meet today to discuss a proposed sales tax agreement with the school district. The agreement would allow the school district to collect a 1.5 percent sales tax on all goods and services sold in the city. The agreement would also allow the school district to collect a 1.5 percent sales tax on all services provided in the city. The agreement would also allow the school district to collect a 1.5 percent sales tax on all services provided in the city.

Giving blood, Giving life
By Jeff Knapp

It's the blood that counts when it comes to the lives of those who need it. The Coronado Blood Center is a vital part of the community, providing blood to those who need it. The center is a vital part of the community, providing blood to those who need it.

ADAMS Paul
Paul Adams is a local resident who has been involved in various community activities. He is a member of the local church and has been active in various community organizations. He is a member of the local church and has been active in various community organizations.

JEFF Knapp
Jeff Knapp is a local resident who has been involved in various community activities. He is a member of the local church and has been active in various community organizations. He is a member of the local church and has been active in various community organizations.

PHOTO: JEFF KNAPP