

PEOPLE

At the Yellow Brick Road Open Show
Arling Heights • 4:30-7:30 p.m. • yellowbrickroad.com

At the Yellow Brick Road Open Show
Village Stage • Lybrook, IL • yellowbrickroad.com

YES! YES!

Voters overwhelmingly approve school bond

How you voted ...

School bond	YES — 2,023
	76.2%
	No — 632
	23.8%
Sales tax	YES — 1,985
	78.65%
	No — 529
	21.35%

Bond supporters 'blown away' by margin of approval

'A sea change for the community'

By CHRISTOPHER

After the November election, school supporters were "blown away" by the margin of approval for the school bond, according to a community leader. The bond, which would raise $10 million for school improvements, was approved by a 76.2 percent margin of voters. The sales tax portion of the bond, which would raise $10 million for school improvements, was approved by a 78.65 percent margin of voters.

LEADER & TIMES
WEDNESDAY APRIL 9, 2014
Your daily news at home for 127 years

Rep. Petty votes 'no' on school funding bill

By CHRISTOPHER

After the House passed a bill to fund schools, Rep. Petty voted "no" on the bill. The bill would provide $1 billion for school funding over the next five years. Petty's vote was part of a coalition of 100 House members who opposed the bill.

Commission elects new mayor, vice mayor

By CHRISTOPHER

The City Commission has elected a new mayor and vice mayor. The new mayor is [Name] and the vice mayor is [Name]. The commission also elected three commissioners to the commission.

Commission elects new mayor, vice mayor
Page 3A

College to review 5-year plan, policies

By CHRISTOPHER

The College is reviewing its five-year plan and policies. The college is looking at ways to improve its programs and services. The review will include a study of the college's financial situation and its academic programs.

Southwestern Heights Mustangs announce 2013-14 valedictorian, salutatorian

By CHRISTOPHER

The Southwestern Heights Mustangs have announced their 2013-14 valedictorian and salutatorian. The valedictorian is [Name] and the salutatorian is [Name]. Both students are members of the Mustangs and have achieved high academic success.

