

Cardary pillows: They're making headlines!
Come watch Major Sports Cards with Whiggy & Santez. Might be a little more than you need for your collection.

Kan. budget could force court turloughs
The state's budget could force the courts to close for good. The state's budget could force the courts to close for good. The state's budget could force the courts to close for good.

'CHAIR'ish The Children
Page 6A

Pioneer contractors wanted
Page 3A

Muñoz triumphs
Mario Muñoz wins the Battle for the Belt on a night where walking out of the cage was not easy.
Page 8A

American Legion hosts district convention
Page 3A

MONDAY APRIL 14, 2014
LEADER & TIMES
Year Daily news & more for 127 years

Easter Egg hunts set for Thursday, Saturday
Easter egg hunts are being held in several areas of the city. The hunts are being held in several areas of the city. The hunts are being held in several areas of the city.

Area awakes to April snow
A heavy snowfall has blanketed the area, bringing a winter-like scene to the region. The snow has blanketed the area, bringing a winter-like scene to the region.

Official IDs supremacist as Kansas attacks suspect
A new law in Kansas has sparked controversy, with some arguing it is a step towards discrimination. The law has sparked controversy, with some arguing it is a step towards discrimination.

IN THE PHOTOS
A group of people are seen at a community event. The group is seen at a community event. The group is seen at a community event.

Pepper Williams, Steve Brinkley