

Cardary pillows: They're making headlines!
Come watch Major Sports Covered with Whigs & Saints. Might also include more than 100 pillows and accessories to match.

Kan. budget could force court furloughs
The state's budget could force court furloughs for judges and court staff, according to a report from the Kansas Judicial Branch Council. The report says that if the state's budget is cut by more than 5 percent, the court system would have to furlough judges and court staff. This would be a significant blow to the justice system, as it would delay trials and other court proceedings.

'CHAIR'ish The Children
Page 6A

Pioneer contractors wanted
Page 3A

Muñoz triumphs
Mario Muñoz wins the Battle for the Belt on a night where walking out of the cage was not easy.
Page 8A

Easter Egg hunts set for Thursday, Saturday
The Easter Bunny is back in town, and with it are the annual Easter egg hunts. The American Legion is hosting two egg hunts, one on Thursday and one on Saturday. The hunts will be held in various locations throughout the city, and prizes will be awarded to the winners.

American Legion hosts district convention
Page 3A

MONDAY APRIL 14, 2014
LEADER & TIMES
Your daily news & views for 127 years

Area awakes to April snow
After a few days of rain, the area was hit with a surprise snowfall on Monday. The snow was heavy and piled up in many areas, causing some travel difficulties. The weather service predicts that the snow will melt by Wednesday, but there may be some ice on the roads.

Official IDs supremacist as Kansas attacks suspect
A suspect in a recent attack on a gay couple in Kansas has been identified as a supremacist. The suspect, who is a member of a far-right organization, has been charged with the crime. The attack has sparked a national debate over the use of official identification and the rights of the LGBTQ community.

IN THE PHOTOS
A group of people are seen at a community event. The photo shows a group of people standing in front of a building, possibly a school or a community center. They appear to be engaged in a social activity or a group discussion.

Puppy Biting, Dogs Barked
A dog was seen biting a person's leg at a community event. The incident occurred in a public area, and the dog's behavior was highly aggressive. The person who was bitten was taken to the hospital for treatment. The incident has raised concerns about the safety of dogs in public spaces.

LEADER & TIMES