IRS reiterates warning of pervasive telephone scam
The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) has issued a warning about a pervasive telephone scam that has been plaguing taxpayers. The scam involves a caller who claims to be from the IRS and offers to help a taxpayer with their tax return. The caller will ask for personal information, such as a Social Security number and bank account information, and will then attempt to steal the taxpayer's money.

Ca. judge asked to stop new Vidalia onion rule

ROBERT BURKEY, JR. — The U.S. District Court in California has asked the U.S. Supreme Court to stop a new rule that would require growers to label Vidalia onions as "California Vidalia." The rule, which was issued by the U.S. Department of Agriculture, would require growers to label their onions as "California Vidalia" if they are grown in California. The growers argue that this rule is unfair and would harm their business.
