IRS reiterates warning of pervasive telephone scam
The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) has issued a warning about a pervasive telephone scam that has been plaguing taxpayers. The scam involves a caller who claims to be from the IRS and offers to help a taxpayer with their tax return. The caller then asks for the taxpayer's Social Security number and other personal information. The IRS has advised taxpayers to be cautious and to hang up if they are contacted by someone who claims to be from the IRS but who is not calling from an official IRS number.

Ca. judge asked to stop new Vidalia onion rule

ROBERT BURKEY, JR. — The U.S. District Court in California has asked the federal government to stop enforcing a new rule that requires Vidalia onions to be grown in California. The rule, which was issued by the U.S. Department of Agriculture, states that only onions grown in California can be sold as Vidalia onions. The court has asked the government to provide evidence that the rule is necessary and that it is in the public interest. The court has also asked the government to provide evidence that the rule is not unduly burdensome on growers in other states.
