

The quickest way to double your money is to lay it on the table and get it back in your pocket.
Thursday Prime Rib
A Village Prime Rib, $19.99. 402-626-6000. Another delivery.
PICK UP OR DELIVERY. SEE OUR WEBSITE FOR MORE INFORMATION. © 2014 CHICAGO TRIBUNE

Coronado exhibit features Mexican immigration

New exhibit scheduled to open May 3

The Coronado Museum is pleased to announce that a new exhibit, "Mexican Immigration: A Journey of Faith and Hope," will be on display from May 3 to August 10. The exhibit, which is the result of a collaboration between the museum and the Mexican Consulate in San Diego, features a variety of artifacts, photographs, and documents that tell the story of Mexican immigration to the United States. The exhibit is free and open to the public.

TAX DAY ALERT

Label 1040 U.S. Individual Income Tax Return

IRS reiterates warning of pervasive telephone scam
The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) has issued a warning about a pervasive telephone scam that has been plaguing taxpayers. The scam involves a caller who claims to be from the IRS and offers to help a taxpayer with their tax return. The caller then asks for the taxpayer's Social Security number and other personal information. The IRS has advised taxpayers to be cautious and to hang up if they are contacted by someone who offers to help with their taxes.

Ca. judge asked to stop new Vidalia onion rule

ROBERT BURKEY, JR. — The U.S. District Court in San Diego has asked the U.S. Department of Agriculture to stop enforcing a new rule that requires Vidalia onions to be grown in California. The rule, which was implemented in 2012, has caused controversy among onion growers in other states, particularly in the Midwest. The court is asking the USDA to provide more information about the rule and to consider the impact on other growers.

Robert Burkey to leave USD 480

Page 3A

Robert Burkey, Jr., a U.S. District Judge in San Diego, is set to leave his position on April 15, 2014. He has served on the bench since 2008. During his tenure, he has presided over numerous cases, including those involving labor unions and environmental issues. He is expected to be replaced by Judge Robert J. Hinkle.

Discarded cigarettes cause fires in Guymon

Discarded cigarettes caused a series of fires in Guymon, Mo., that destroyed several homes and businesses. The fires, which occurred over a period of several weeks, were caused by discarded cigarettes that were left lying around. The Guymon Fire Department has issued a warning to the community to be careful with discarded cigarettes and to dispose of them properly.

IRS gave House Dems info on targeted conservative group, emails show

The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) gave House Democrats information about a targeted conservative group, according to emails obtained by the Freedom of Information Act. The emails, which were dated in 2010, show that the IRS provided information about the group to a House committee. The group, which is known as the "Tea Party Patriots," is a conservative organization that has been active in opposing the Obama administration's policies.

Family, friends remember Kansas shooting victims

Family and friends gathered in Kansas to remember the victims of a shooting that occurred in the state. The shooting, which took place in a public area, resulted in the deaths of several people. The victims' families and friends gathered for a memorial service to honor their loved ones and to express their grief. The service was held in a church and was attended by a large number of people.