

Renovations continue at Stepping Stone Shelter
Preparations for Spring BBQ, Buns-Que, and Thang

Local churches announce Easter services, activities

Easter Bunny surprises children at Land of Oz Easter Egg Hunt

home split
Lady Salts split pair with Garden City Wednesday

LEADER & TIMES
THURSDAY APRIL 17, 2014
Quality of education in Liberal ranks high

101 and counting: Linda Plett celebrates a lifetime of grit, good memories
Her daily work & home for 127 years

By Larry Phillips
Linda Plett is 101 years old today, and she has lived through some of the most significant events in American history. She was born in 1913 in the small town of Garden City, Mo., and has spent most of her life in the same home. She has seen the rise and fall of several presidents, the end of World War II, and the beginning of the space age. She has also seen the birth of the modern civil rights movement and the Vietnam War. Despite all of these changes, Linda remains a strong and resilient woman. She has a sense of humor and a love for life. She is a devoted wife and mother, and she has a deep faith in God. She is a testament to the power of the human spirit and the strength of the American dream.

KPA names L&T top in state in advertising design, messages

By Larry Phillips
The Kansas Professional Advertising Association (KPA) has named Leader & Times as the top advertising agency in the state for the second year in a row. The award is based on a variety of factors, including the quality of the agency's work, its customer service, and its ability to meet the needs of its clients. Leader & Times has a long history of excellence in advertising, and this award is a testament to the agency's commitment to its clients and the community. The agency has a team of talented professionals who are dedicated to creating effective advertising campaigns that drive results for their clients. This award is a great honor for the agency and its staff, and it is a reflection of the high standards that they maintain in their work.

