

Renovations continue at Stepping Stone Shelter
Spring Street Bar-B-Que
Preparing for Spring Street Bar-B-Que
Page 4A

Local churches announce Easter services, activities
Page 4B

Easter Bunny surprises children at Land of Oz Easter Egg hunt
Page 2A

home split
Lady Salts split pair with Garden City Wednesday
Page 8A

LEADER & TIMES

THURSDAY APRIL 17, 2014
Quality of education in Liberal ranks high

101 and counting: Linda Plett celebrates a lifetime of grit, good memories

Your daily news & news for 127 years

By Susan Fisher

The 101st birthday of Linda Plett is being celebrated in a special way at the Garden City Senior Center. Plett, who has lived in Garden City for 60 years, is the oldest woman in the center. She has a long and interesting life story that includes living in a tent, working in a cannery, and being a nurse. Plett was born in 1913 in a small town in Kansas. She moved to Garden City in 1954 and has lived there ever since. She has a husband and two children. Plett is a member of the Garden City Senior Center and enjoys spending time with her friends. She is a very active and outgoing person. She has a great sense of humor and is always ready to share a story. Plett is a true example of a woman who has lived a life of grit and good memories.

KPA names L&T top in state in advertising design, messages

By Susan Fisher

The Kansas Professional Advertising Association (KPA) has named Leader & Times as the top newspaper in the state for advertising design and messages. This is the second year in a row that Leader & Times has received this honor. The KPA is a national organization that recognizes excellence in advertising. Leader & Times has been recognized for its creative and effective advertising campaigns. The award is a testament to the hard work and dedication of the advertising staff at Leader & Times. The staff has consistently delivered high-quality advertising that has helped businesses and organizations reach their target audience. Leader & Times is proud to receive this recognition and will continue to strive for excellence in advertising design and messages.

