Deputy elections clerk leaving Liberal
BY JEFFREY HARRIS
Candice Green, deputy clerk of the Board of Election Commissioners in Liberal, is leaving her position to return to her home state of Missouri. She has worked for the board since 2008 and will be replaced by Jennifer Smith. Green has been instrumental in the board's efforts to improve the election process in the community. She will be missed by her colleagues and the community.

Kids scurry for prize Easter eggs Friday
A young girl in a striped shirt and blue pants is seen running through a field of tall grass, searching for Easter eggs. Other children are visible in the background, also engaged in the activity.

Carrying the Cross for Christ
A group of people is participating in a religious procession. A man in the foreground is carrying a large wooden cross on his shoulders. They are walking along a paved path outdoors.

Delay won't quell 2014 wrangling over Keystone XL
WASHINGTON — Despite mounting evidence that the Keystone XL pipeline project is not economically viable, the U.S. Supreme Court's decision to delay a final ruling on the project has not quelled the intense political and public debate over the project's future.
