LHS joins elite by becoming model AVID school

By [Name] Staff Writer
Lynch Senior High School has earned a national reputation as a model AVID (Advancement Via Individualized) school. The school was named one of the top 100 AVID schools in the nation by the AVID National Office in San Diego, Calif., in a recent survey of 1,000 schools across the country. The school's success is attributed to its focus on providing every student with the opportunity to succeed in college. The school's AVID program is a comprehensive system of support that includes small class sizes, collaborative learning, and individualized instruction. The school's success is a testament to the dedication of its faculty and staff, as well as the support of its parents and the community.

Newly obtained Benghazi emails suggest White House aide involved in prepping Rice for 'video' explanation

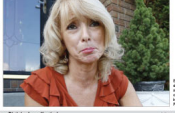

By [Name] Staff Writer
A review of newly obtained emails suggests a White House aide was involved in preparing Secretary of State Hillary Clinton for a video explanation of the 2012 Benghazi attack. The emails, which were obtained through a Freedom of Information Act request, show that the aide was involved in drafting a script for Clinton's video. The script was designed to minimize the damage to the administration by blaming the attack on a "terrorist" group. The aide's involvement in the process has raised questions about the administration's handling of the attack and its attempt to control the narrative. The emails also show that the aide was involved in coordinating the release of the video to the media. The discovery of these emails has led to renewed scrutiny of the administration's actions in the wake of the attack.

Sept. 11, 2012, a gunman investigates the rubble of the U.S. Consulate in the aftermath of the attack on the consulate in Benghazi, Libya. The attack on the consulate in Benghazi, Libya, on Sept. 11, 2012, resulted in the deaths of four Americans and the destruction of the consulate building.

Judge OKs decision to sell widow's home over $6.30 debt

By [Name] Staff Writer
A judge has approved the sale of a widow's home to pay off a $6.30 debt. The widow, who is 85 years old, had been unable to pay the debt for several years. The judge's decision allows the home to be sold and the proceeds used to pay off the debt. The widow's attorney argued that the debt was too small to warrant the sale of the home, but the judge ruled in favor of the creditor. The decision has raised questions about the treatment of small debts in bankruptcy proceedings. Some argue that such debts should be discharged, while others believe that they should be paid in full. The judge's decision is a clear statement that even small debts must be paid.
