LHS joins elite by becoming model AVID school

LEWISTON — The Lewiston High School AVID program has been named a model school by the AVID organization, a national organization that promotes the use of AVID in schools. The school was named one of the top 100 AVID schools in the nation. The AVID program is a college preparatory program that focuses on writing, reading, and thinking skills. It is designed to help students who are at risk of dropping out of school to succeed in college. The program is based on the AVID model, which is a research-based approach to learning. The AVID model is based on the idea that all students can succeed in college if they are given the right support and resources. The AVID program at Lewiston High School is a testament to the school's commitment to providing a high-quality education for all students.

Newly obtained Benghazi emails suggest White House aide involved in prepping Rice for 'video' explanation

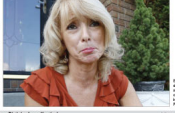

WASHINGTON — Newly obtained e-mails suggest a White House aide was involved in preparing Secretary of State Hillary Clinton for a video explanation of the Sept. 11, 2012, attack on the U.S. consulate in Benghazi, Libya. The e-mails, obtained under a Freedom of Information Act request, show a White House aide, identified as a "senior White House official," discussing the attack with Clinton and other senior officials. The aide is seen discussing the need for a video explanation of the attack and the role of the White House in preparing Clinton for the video. The e-mails also show the aide discussing the need for a video explanation of the attack and the role of the White House in preparing Clinton for the video. The e-mails are dated in the days leading up to the video explanation. The e-mails are a key piece of evidence in the ongoing investigation into the attack.
