LHS joins elite by becoming model AVID school

By JEFFREY...
Lynch School of the Sacred Heart (LHS) has been named a model AVID (Advancement Via Individual Determination) school, joining an elite group of schools nationwide that have earned this distinction. The AVID program, developed by Linda Ward Beech, is designed to help students, particularly those who are academically at risk, succeed in high school and college. LHS has been recognized for its commitment to this program and its focus on student achievement and college readiness.

Newly obtained Benghazi emails suggest White House aide involved in prepping Rice for 'video' explanation

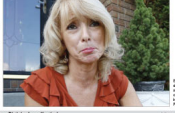

By...
A newly obtained email suggests a White House aide was involved in preparing Secretary of State Hillary Clinton for a video explanation of the 2012 Benghazi attack. The email, dated in late 2012, shows a discussion about how to handle the situation and the role of the video. The aide mentioned in the email is believed to be a senior White House official. The email also mentions the involvement of other officials, including the Secretary of State and the Director of National Intelligence. The release of this email is part of a larger investigation into the Benghazi attack and the White House's handling of the situation.

The image shows the interior of a building that has been severely damaged, with debris scattered on the floor and smoke in the air. The damage appears to be the result of an explosion or fire. The caption indicates that this is the site of the Benghazi attack.

Judge OKs decision to sell widow's home over $6.30 debt

By...
A judge has approved the sale of a widow's home to pay off a $6.30 debt. The widow, who is elderly and has limited income, had been struggling to pay the debt. The judge's decision allows the home to be sold, and the proceeds used to settle the debt. This is a common practice in cases where a debtor is unable to pay their debts and the assets are liquidated to satisfy the obligations.
