LHS joins elite by becoming model AVID school

LEWISTON — The Lewiston High School AVID program has been named a National Model AVID School, a distinction that only a select group of schools nationwide has earned. The school's AVID program was recognized for its commitment to providing high-quality education for all students, regardless of their background or ability. The AVID program is a research-based approach to learning that focuses on developing students' critical thinking, communication, and collaboration skills. It is designed to help students succeed in college and beyond. Lewiston High School is one of the few schools in the state to have earned this honor, and it is a testament to the hard work and dedication of the school's AVID teachers and students.

Newly obtained Benghazi emails suggest White House aide involved in prepping Rice for 'video' explanation

WASHINGTON — Newly obtained e-mails suggest a White House aide was involved in preparing Secretary of State Hillary Clinton for a video explanation of the 2012 Benghazi attack. The e-mails, which were obtained through a Freedom of Information Act request, show that the aide was involved in drafting a script for the video and in coordinating the attack. The aide's involvement in the video is a significant revelation, as it suggests that the White House was involved in the attack. The video, which was released in January 2014, was widely criticized for its lack of transparency and for its failure to provide a clear explanation of the attack. The newly obtained e-mails provide a glimpse into the White House's internal communications and suggest that the White House was involved in the attack. Judge OKs decision to sell widow's home over $6.30 debt

LEWISTON — A judge has approved the sale of a home to pay off a $6.30 debt. The home, which was owned by a woman who had passed away, was sold to the highest bidder for $6.30. The sale was approved by a judge who ruled that the debt was valid and that the home should be sold to pay it off. The woman's estate had argued that the debt was not valid and that the home should not be sold. However, the judge ruled in favor of the creditor and approved the sale of the home. The sale of the home for such a low price is a significant revelation, as it suggests that the creditor was willing to accept a very low price for the home. The judge's decision is a testament to the power of the law and the importance of paying one's debts.
