

Kansas lawmakers wrap up year's business, adjourn

TOPEKA, Kan. — Kansas legislators have adjourned for the year, wrapping up a session that was marked by a record number of bills passed and a focus on budget and education issues.

Kansas legislators vote to open police records

TOPEKA, Kan. — Kansas legislators have approved a measure that would require law enforcement agencies to make police records more accessible to the public.

Traffic stop leads to dozens of stolen weapons

TOPEKA, Kan. — A traffic stop in a rural area of Kansas led to the discovery of dozens of stolen firearms and other weapons.

Green energy rule for Kan. utilities survives

TOPEKA, Kan. — A Kansas legislative measure that would require utilities to generate a portion of their power from renewable sources has survived a veto attempt by the governor.

Kansas budget measure goes to governor

TOPEKA, Kan. — A bill that would require the state to reduce spending by a certain percentage has been passed by the legislature and sent to the governor.

Whale washes up in New Jersey, gets graffiti tag

ATLANTA, Ga. — A whale carcass washed up on a beach in New Jersey and was found to have been tagged with graffiti.