

Why is the day that you do laundry, cook, clean, iron and so on, called a day off?
Come watch Mayor Spector's Children with Mayor, at Sports Night
at 6:30 on May 11, 2014 on Channel 21
Watch it on TV at 6:30 on May 11, 2014 on Channel 21

Little Britches Rodeo rides into town
A crowd of people gathered in the town square for the Little Britches Rodeo. The event featured a variety of rodeo activities, including barrel racing, cutting horse, and team roping. The rodeo was held in the town square, which was filled with spectators and participants.

Yellow Brick Road leads to Light Park
A yellow brick road leads to Light Park. The road is a paved path that winds through the park, leading to various attractions and rides. The path is well-maintained and provides a scenic route for visitors.

Crowning the Cinco de Mayo Queen
A young woman was crowned the Cinco de Mayo Queen. The ceremony took place at a local event, where the queen was crowned with a tiara and sash. She will represent the community during the Cinco de Mayo celebrations.

Colorful Cinco de Mayo parade
A colorful parade celebrated Cinco de Mayo. The parade featured a variety of floats, including marching bands, dance troupes, and community groups. The parade was held on a main street and drew a large crowd of spectators.

MONDAY MAY 12, 2014
LEADER & TIMES
Your daily news & view for 125 years

Liberal man dies in early Sunday morning wreck
A liberal man died in an early Sunday morning wreck. The accident occurred on a highway, and the driver was pronounced dead at the scene. The cause of the accident is still under investigation.

Saints salute class of 2014 graduates
The Saints church community saluted the class of 2014 graduates. The ceremony was held at the church, where the graduates were presented with diplomas and certificates. The church community offered prayers and support for the graduates.

Maine woman, 80, goes skydiving on Mother's Day
An 80-year-old Maine woman went skydiving on Mother's Day. The woman, who had never skydived before, was accompanied by her family. The jump was a memorable experience for everyone involved.

Family tests Kan. water law, claims impairment
A family in Kansas is testing a new water law and claiming impairment. The family has filed a lawsuit against the state, claiming that the new law will harm their water supply. The case is currently in court.

Kansas considers revised permit for coal plant
Kansas is considering a revised permit for a coal plant. The permit is being reviewed by the state's regulatory agencies. The revised permit includes additional environmental protections and monitoring requirements.

Happy Birthday, Bryan Malinski