

Why is the day that you do laundry, cook, clean, iron and so on, called a day off?
Comer Mearns' May Day's Children with May Day, in Sparta, N.H.
48th Annual May Day Parade in Sparta, N.H.
May Day's Children with May Day, in Sparta, N.H.

Little Britches Rodeo rides into town
Yellow Brick Road leads to Light Park

Crowning the Cinco de Mayo Queen

MONDAY MAY 12, 2014
LEADER & TIMES
 Your daily news & view for 125 years

Liberal man dies in early Sunday morning wreck
 A Liberal man died Sunday morning in a wreck on the highway near the town of Liberty, N.H. The driver was identified as John J. Mearns, 68, of Liberty, N.H. He was driving a 2007 Ford Focus when it rolled over on the highway near the town of Liberty, N.H. The driver was pronounced dead at the scene.

Saints salute class of 2014 graduates
 Members of the parading Corps of St. Ann's School, Stoughton, N.H., salute the graduates of the St. Ann's School, Stoughton, N.H., during the annual graduation ceremony.

Maine woman, 80, goes skydiving on Mother's Day
 WASHINGTON, Maine, 80-year-old Mary Ann Smith, of Bethel, Maine, went skydiving on Mother's Day. She was the first woman to skydive from the Bethel area. She was accompanied by her husband, John Smith, and two other people. They were all safely landed at the Bethel airport.

Family tests Kan. water law, claims impairment
 A family in Kansas is testing a new water law that allows them to sue for impairment of their water rights. The family claims that a coal plant is polluting their water and that they are unable to use it for drinking or irrigation.

Kansas considers revised permit for coal plant
 Kansas is considering a revised permit for a coal plant that would allow it to emit more pollutants than it is currently allowed to. The permit would allow the plant to emit more sulfur dioxide, nitrogen dioxide, and particulate matter.

1043 12873863100 Pages Happy Birthdays Bryan Mulkerron