

You only see that the money is not the most important thing in life when you have it.
Thursday Prime Rib
64 Village Plaza • Liberal, KS 67242-2222 • 303-765-4525

---

Woman wounded in early Sunday morning shooting
A woman was wounded early Sunday morning in a shooting in Seward County, Kansas. The victim, a 32-year-old woman, was shot in the leg and arm while walking alone in a wooded area near her home. She was transported to a hospital where she is expected to survive. The police are currently searching for the suspect. Go to Page 2A

Local authors donate to library
A group of local authors and readers gathered at the Seward County Public Library for a book signing and donation event. The authors included several well-known regional writers. The event was a success, with many new books being added to the library's collection. Go to Page 2A

Percent Receiving Food Stamps
Use of food stamps rises in Seward County Page 6A

Year	National	Kansas	Seward
2000	11.5	13.0	10.0
2001	11.5	13.0	11.0
2002	12.0	14.0	13.0
2003	12.0	14.0	15.0
2004	12.0	14.0	16.0
2005	12.5	15.0	17.0
2006	12.5	15.0	18.0
2007	13.0	16.0	19.0
2008	13.0	16.0	20.0
2009	13.5	17.0	21.0
2010	14.0	18.0	22.0
2011	14.0	18.0	23.0
2012	14.5	19.0	24.0
2013	15.0	20.0	25.0

Kansas mom pleads no contest in 6-year-old daughter's death
A Kansas mother has pleaded no contest to the death of her 6-year-old daughter. The child died in a car accident in 2007. The mother, who is now 34 years old, is facing charges of child endangerment and vehicular homicide. She will be sentenced to a term of years in prison. Go to Page 1A

Seward County man dies in fire
A Seward County man died in a fire that broke out in his home early Sunday morning. The fire was caused by a gas leak. The man, who was 55 years old, was found in the kitchen. The fire department responded to the scene and fought the fire for several hours. Go to Page 2A

City to give up property for school expansion
A city council meeting was held to discuss the city's plan to give up property for school expansion. The city is planning to build a new school building and will need additional land. The council will vote on the matter next week. Go to Page 2A

Coffee with a candidate:
A candidate for office is holding a coffee meeting with voters. The candidate is a local businessman who is running for office in the upcoming election. He is inviting voters to meet with him at a local cafe to discuss his platform. Go to Page 2A

County to conduct special work session tonight
The county government is holding a special work session tonight. The session will focus on discussing the county's budget and other important issues. The session will start at 7:00 PM in the county administration building. Go to Page 2A

Fetus mummified on Kansas prairie chicken law
A fetus was mummified on a Kansas prairie chicken. The bird was found dead in a field and was taken to a laboratory for examination. The fetus was found inside the bird's body. This is a rare occurrence and is a violation of the state's prairie chicken law. Go to Page 2A

Energy savings bill fails amid election politics
An energy savings bill has failed to pass in the legislature. The bill was aimed at reducing energy costs and promoting renewable energy. However, it was blocked by opposition from the energy industry and other groups. Go to Page 2A

---

TUESDAY MAY 13, 2014
LEADER & TIMES
100 South Main Street • Liberal, KS 67242-2222 • 303-765-4525
Subscription rates: $5.00 per month, $48.00 per year in advance.

---

Geithner, in memoir, suggests White House asked him to bend truth on deficit
Timothy Geithner, former director of the Federal Reserve and Treasury Secretary, suggests in his memoir that the White House asked him to bend the truth regarding the deficit. He writes that he was told to downplay the severity of the problem in order to reassure investors and the public. Go to Page 2A