

You only see that the money is not the most important thing in life when you have it.
Thursday Prime Rib
 #4 Village Prime • 1 lb. Bone-in, #2 • $22.95 • $29.95 • $39.95
 #10 Village Prime • 1 lb. Bone-in, #2 • $22.95 • $29.95 • $39.95

Woman wounded in early Sunday morning shooting
 A woman was wounded in an early Sunday morning shooting in Seward County. The victim was taken to a local hospital and is expected to survive. The shooting occurred in the early morning hours of Sunday, May 11, in the town of Seward. The woman was shot in the back and was taken to the Seward Hospital. She is currently in stable condition. The police are currently investigating the shooting and have not yet identified a suspect.

Percent Receiving Food Stamps
Use of food stamps rises in Seward County Page 6A

Year	Percent Receiving Food Stamps
2000	10.0
2001	11.0
2002	12.0
2003	13.0
2004	14.0
2005	15.0
2006	16.0
2007	17.0
2008	18.0
2009	19.0
2010	20.0
2011	21.0
2012	22.0
2013	25.0

Local authors donate to library Page 2A
 A group of local authors donated books to the Seward County Library. The authors, including [names], donated a collection of their works to support the library's efforts to provide reading materials to the community.

Kansas mom pleads no contest in 6-year-old daughter's death
 A Kansas mother has pleaded no contest to the death of her 6-year-old daughter. The case involved a tragic incident that occurred in the family's home. The mother is currently facing charges related to the death, and the case is being handled by the local prosecutor's office.

Seward County man dies in fire
 A man from Seward County died in a fire that broke out in his home. The fire occurred in the early morning hours of Sunday, May 11. The man was found in the fire and was pronounced dead at the scene. The cause of the fire is still under investigation.

City to give up property for school expansion
 The city of Seward is set to give up a portion of its property to accommodate a school expansion project. The project is a long-planned initiative to improve the city's educational facilities. The city council has approved the plan, and the expansion is expected to be completed in the near future.

Geithner, in memoir, suggests White House asked him to bend truth on deficit
 Former Treasury Secretary Timothy Geithner suggests in his memoir that the White House asked him to bend the truth regarding the federal deficit. Geithner's memoir provides a candid look at his time in the White House and the challenges he faced as Treasury Secretary. He discusses the political pressures he was under and the impact of his actions on the country's financial future.

County to conduct special work session tonight
 Seward County is scheduled to hold a special work session tonight. The session will focus on discussing various county issues and making decisions on upcoming projects. The work session is open to the public, and interested parties are encouraged to attend and provide input.

Feds mum on Kansas prairie chicken law
 The federal government has remained silent on a new law regarding the prairie chicken in Kansas. The law, which was recently passed by the state legislature, aims to protect the prairie chicken population and its habitat. The federal government's response is being closely watched by conservation groups and the public.

Energy savings bill fails amid election politics
 A bill aimed at promoting energy savings has failed to pass due to election politics. The bill, which was introduced in the state legislature, sought to provide incentives for energy-efficient buildings and infrastructure. However, the bill was blocked by opposition from certain political groups who were focused on their own electoral interests.