

You only see that the money is not the most important thing in life when you have it.
Thursday Prime Rib
#4 Village Plaza • Liberal, KS 67242-2020 • Reservations: 785-822-1111
Only 10 seats remain for this special anniversary celebration. $1,000.00 per person.

Woman wounded in early Sunday morning shooting

By Sarah Hays
A woman was wounded in a shooting in Seward County on Sunday morning. The woman, who was not identified, was shot in the leg. She was taken to a hospital and is expected to survive. The shooting occurred in the early morning hours. The police are currently investigating the incident.

Percent Receiving Food Stamps Use of food stamps rises in Seward County

Local authors donate to library

Local authors have donated their books to the Seward County Library. The authors include several well-known names in the region. The books will be available for borrowing at the library.

Kansas mom pleads no contest in 6-year-old daughter's death

A Kansas mother has pleaded no contest to the death of her 6-year-old daughter. The case has drawn significant attention in the community. The mother is currently facing charges related to the incident.

Seward County man dies in fire

A man from Seward County died in a fire that broke out in his home. The fire caused significant damage to the property. The man was not injured in the incident.

City to give up property for school expansion

The city of Seward is planning to give up some property to allow for school expansion. This move is part of a larger plan to improve the local education system. The city officials are currently in the process of negotiating the terms of the agreement.

Coffee with a candidate:

A candidate for office is participating in a 'coffee with a candidate' event. The event is designed to allow voters to meet with the candidate and ask questions. The candidate is currently running for a local office.

Geithner, in memoir, suggests White House asked him to bend truth on deficit

In his memoir, Timothy Geithner suggests that the White House asked him to bend the truth regarding the deficit. This revelation has caused a stir in the media and among the public. Geithner is a former high-ranking official in the Obama administration.

County to conduct special work session tonight

Seward County is holding a special work session tonight. The session will focus on discussing various issues related to the county's operations. The meeting is open to the public.

Feds mum on Kansas prairie chicken law

The federal government is silent on a new law regarding the prairie chicken in Kansas. The law has been passed by the state legislature but has not yet been signed into law by the governor. The federal government's stance is unclear.

Energy savings bill fails amid election politics

A bill aimed at energy savings has failed in the legislature due to election politics. The bill was part of a larger package of legislation. The failure of the bill is seen as a setback for energy conservation efforts.