

You only see that the money is not the most important thing in life when you have it.
Thursday Prime Rib
#4 Village Prime • 1 lb. Bone In, #2 • $22.95 • $29.95
#5 Village Prime • 1 lb. Bone In, #2 • $22.95 • $29.95

Woman wounded in early Sunday morning shooting

By Sarah Hays
A woman was wounded in a shooting in Seward County on Sunday morning. The victim, who was not identified, was shot in the back of the head and chest. She was taken to a hospital and is in stable condition. The shooting occurred in a residential area. Police are currently investigating the incident.

Local authors donate to library

Page 2A
A group of local authors and librarians gathered at the Seward County Library to donate books. The authors, including several well-known regional writers, donated a variety of titles to the library's collection. The event was a success and the library staff expressed their appreciation for the authors' generosity.

Kansas mom pleads no contest in 6-year-old daughter's death

A Kansas mother has pleaded no contest to the death of her 6-year-old daughter. The incident occurred in a residential area. The mother is currently facing charges related to the death. Her attorney is working to resolve the case as quickly as possible.

Seward County man dies in fire

A man from Seward County died in a fire that broke out in his home. The fire started in the kitchen and quickly spread throughout the house. The man was found in the living room and pronounced dead at the scene. Firefighters arrived shortly after the fire was reported.

City to give up property for school expansion

The City of Seward is set to give up property to the school district for a new school building. The school board has approved the plan, and the city council is expected to vote on it soon. The new school will provide additional classroom space and modern facilities for the district's students.

Coffee with a candidate:

A candidate for office is participating in a 'coffee with a candidate' event. The event is open to the public and provides an opportunity for voters to meet the candidate and ask questions. The candidate is currently campaigning for the upcoming election.

Geithner, in memoir, suggests White House asked him to bend truth on deficit

Timothy Geithner's memoir suggests that the White House asked him to bend the truth regarding the deficit. Geithner, who served as Director of the Federal Reserve, discusses his experiences and the challenges he faced during his tenure. His account provides a unique perspective on the economic situation at the time.

County to conduct special work session tonight

Seward County is holding a special work session tonight. The session will focus on discussing various issues related to county operations and budget. The public is invited to attend and provide input on the matters being discussed.

Feds mum on Kansas prairie chicken law

The federal government is silent on a new law regarding the prairie chicken in Kansas. The law aims to protect the species and its habitat. Environmental groups are monitoring the situation and may take action if the federal government does not support the law.

Energy savings bill fails amid election politics

A bill aimed at energy savings has failed in Congress due to election politics. The bill was part of a larger legislative package that did not pass. The failure is attributed to the political climate and the upcoming elections.